Response to Amendment

1. Applicant's amendment and remarks of September 14, 2005 are acknowledged and entered.
2. Applicant's remarks with respect to claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 1-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Benefiel et al. in view of Lowe et al.

Benefiel et al. discloses a flexible straw 212 (Column 7, lines 35-36) substantially filled with a material, the straw having tightly fitting end caps 36 (see the embodiment of Figure 6) in which the straw is formed from materials including polypropylene or polyethylene and is made to be transparent, translucent, or opaque (Column 6, lines 51-64). Lowe et al. teaches a straw filled with granular material in which the straw has an inside diameter of at least 0.5 inches (Column 3, lines 15-17). It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have made the straw of Benefiel et al. to have an inside diameter of at least 0.5 inch as taught by Lowe et al. to be able to fill the straw with the desired amount of material.

Art Unit: 3752

Regarding the various types of materials of which the straw is filled with, it has been held that a recitation with respect to the manner in which a claimed apparatus is intended to be employed does not differentiate the claimed apparatus from a prior art apparatus satisfying the claimed structural limitations.

Conclusion

5. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP

§ 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a). A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
